This architectural elevation drawing shows a complex building facade. The ground floor is highlighted in red, indicating a specific level of interest or a new addition. The building features a mix of dark and light-colored sections, with numerous windows and a prominent central entrance area. The drawing is a black and white line art style with color highlights.

The site plan shows the layout of the MAISON UNIFAMILIALE. It features five distinct units labeled A through E. Units A, B, and C are located in the upper portion of the plan, while units D and E are in the lower portion. Each unit is detailed with interior room divisions and furniture symbols. The units are separated by green lawn areas and a central yellow-paved walkway. Landscaping includes various tree symbols (circles with internal patterns) and shrubs. The plan is bordered by 'Rue de Paris' on the right and 'Rue de la République' on the top. A north arrow is located in the upper right corner.

Document non contractuel - Des modifications sont susceptibles d'être apportées en fonction des nécessités de la réalisation - L'ameublement et l'aménagement des cuisines sont dessinés à titre d'illustration.
